

THE POPE AND K. OF C. PILGRIMS

ROME, Italy.—Precedents were shattered and history was made August 29 at the Vatican. It was the occasion of the visit of the American Knights of Columbus. For the first time in history the Vatican was reserved for the Americans the entire day. Pope Benedict XV posed for the movies and the American photographers, also for the first time in history. When Vatican officials objected to the pope being photographed, he said: "Let the Americans have what they want." (This photograph, the first to reach America, shows the pope with the K. C. pilgrims.)

COX GIVES LAST WORD TO WEST

Highly Flattering Remarks Round Out Busy Days Of Speechmaking

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 22.—Governor Cox of Ohio, Democratic presidential candidate, who left California last night and who was in Arizona today, on the way to Phoenix, spoke to the west this morning through the Los Angeles Times, Republican newspaper.

Just before his train left Los Angeles he asked the Times to publish the following statement:

"The nation must look to the west for its food income. You have got the acres and there is much larger opportunity for the development of that acreage in the west than in the east."

"I like your western spirit."

"Your people are eager, they are progressive, they respond more quickly to the spoken word."

"I believe the Almighty realized that the task of reclaiming this western country required a great people, for you people are doing that great work with a wonderful spirit."

Governor Cox's program for today called for a number of speeches, as does that for tomorrow, which will see him on the way to New Mexico with plans completed for visits to Colorado, Wyoming, Nebraska, South Dakota, Kansas, Oklahoma and Missouri.

APPEAL OF MOTHER.
Governor Cox, Democratic presidential candidate, in his final address in California, declared here last night that "every candidate for president should be compelled to come and see your wonderful country, look you in the face and study your needs."

"We can not have the slightest understanding of the west unless we see it," he said.

He gave almost his entire time here to the league of nations.

A woman in the audience asked: "Are you going to send our boys to France again?"

"I am sure," he said. "I am sure that if we had the league of nations ten years ago, you still would have your son."

Governor Cox was on the way to Arizona last night, after completing his southern California campaign, which included one scheduled event—the brief appearance of the governor as an "actor" before the motion picture camera.

MANY DISAPPOINTED.

His program was so crowded that he was unable to keep some of the last minute engagements made for him by the Los Angeles committee, but he managed to address two audiences at Long Beach, two at Los Angeles, one at Hollywood, and one at San Bernardino, before his departure.

He started the day with an address to the Southern California Editorial association in convention here. He told members of that organization he would speak to them "as an editor to his fellow editors," and would not touch on political questions.

"I have plenty of time to do that every day," he said.

Then he went to Long Beach and before an audience which overflowed the municipal auditorium, made an address which was largely a defense of the league of nations and an account of the nomination of Senator Harding as the Republican presidential candidate.

He referred to the latter event as a meeting in Room 404, Blackstone hotel at Chicago, where senatorial oligarchy met and handicapped the Republican candidate.

His second speech at Long Beach was to those unable to crowd into the auditorium. He made reference to the Japanese question in California and promised that if he were elected president, he would be bound by the constitution to respect the rights of states to settle their own internal problems.

PROLOGUE WITH BATHING GIRLS.
Back to Los Angeles again, he spoke to a gathering of club women of southern California.

The governor's program, as arranged by the local committee, called also for three other addresses here. He was unable to keep these engagements, however, and those who had hoped to hear him at these places, after waiting long, finally gave up hope and departed without hearing what the engagements had been cancelled.

"The governor was able to keep the engagement at a motion picture studio in Hollywood, where he 'acted' on a 'set' prepared especially for his visit."

The "set" represented the ship of state and he took up a position on the bridge, while about the craft, in waves which reached their ankles, departed a number of girls in bathing suits.

In a brief talk from the bridge, the governor extolled the motion picture industry and declared the "happy faces" he saw about him gave proof of satisfaction found in that work.

QUEEN OF NETHERLANDS FAVORS ENLARGED ARMY

THE HAGUE, Sept. 22.—Queen Wilhelmina, at the opening of parliament yesterday, said the relations of The Netherlands with foreign countries had been maintained in a generally satisfactory manner. The situation in Europe, however, was uncertain, she declared, and the prospects held out by the league of nations with regard to the future relations of the various states had not yet been realized.

Under these circumstances, she added, measures for reinforcement of the active forces of Holland, would be adopted, while the pressure of military service individually and financially would be lessened. The queen announced a partial revision of the constitution.

FREIGHT WRECK BLOCKS TRAFFIC ON RIO GRANDE

PUEBLO, Colo., Sept. 22.—An extra Denver & Rio Grande freight train, eastbound from Salida, was derailed at 8:30 this morning at Taylor's Point, about 30 miles west of Canon City. Eleven cars left the tracks and were considerably damaged. No one was injured. A wrecking crew from Pueblo expects to have the tracks cleared this afternoon.

HARDING SEEKS HALF-HOLIDAY

Great Party of Traveling Men On Special Trains Due Saturday

MARION, O., Sept. 22.—With no front porch speech on his program, Senator Harding gave his attention today to odds and ends of campaign work and arranged to get away during the afternoon for a ride and a half holiday.

Elaborate preparations are under way at Harding headquarters for the front porch celebration to be held Saturday when the senator will address members of the Harding and Coolidge Traveling Men's association. Headquarters said today that thirty-five special trains would come from outside Ohio.

SAYS CHINA BETRAYED
Developing his attack on the peace treaty from another quarter, Senator Harding charged in a front porch speech yesterday that President Wilson's peace commission at Versailles broke faith with China. "Through contract secretly made," when they consented to the award of Shantung province to Japan.

China, he said, put her interests in the hands of the Americans, but found that "instead of being awarded the freedom of her own people, under the league of nations, she was delivered over to a rival nation with the consent and approval of those who spoke for America at Paris."

ACTRESS ALSO SPEAKS
In his speech delivered to a delegation representing the Loyal Order of the Golden Heart, the senator also assailed the league covenant and declared the United States never would enter an international concord at the expense of its own independence. He reiterated, however, that he stood for an association of nations based on "the applied conscience of nations rather than military force."

At an earlier front porch meeting the candidate shared the limelight with Lillian Russell, the actress, who made a speech to several scores of Marion women, telling them why their first vote should be cast for the Republican ticket. She said American women must not be deceived by the alluring qualities of the league of nations but should vote against it if they wanted to protect their homes and their sons.

ANSWERS ROOSEVELT
Senator Harding replied to the telegram of Frank D. Roosevelt, who wired saying he had been misquoted by the senator in regard to American participation in the affairs of Haiti. Senator Harding's telegram follows:

"Your telegram stating that I quoted in a speech on September 17, a statement which you had already publicly denied, is received. I am frank to say I had not seen and have not yet seen such denial, but accept your statement in good faith and express regret that I should have quoted you. I am sincerely sorry for any implied misrepresentation."

This does not in any way abate my opinion of the policy of your administration in dealing with Haiti and San Domingo, but I do want to express regret for the quotation of a statement you disavow. Because I am devoted to truth and courtesy I am asking the news associations and newspaper correspondents to carry this telegram as conspicuously as they did the quotation."

Others who presented papers were W. A. Marshall, chairman, Oregon state industrial accident commission; W. F. Monson, commissioner, Utah industrial commission, and George H. ## AFTER 4 YEARS ARCHITECT IS AGAIN ON JOB

Architect Brewer Praises Tanlac for Putting Him On His Feet

"For four years I was unable to work at all, but since taking Tanlac I am back on the job and never miss a day," said J. S. Brewer, well known architect and building contractor, who lives at 4300 Brooklyn avenue, Kansas City, Mo.

"For five years," continued Mr. Brewer, "I was in bad shape from indigestion catarrh and a general run-down condition. Nearly everything I ate disagreed with me and caused so much gas on my stomach that I could hardly breathe, and my heart palpitated alarmingly. The catarrh in my head made me have a stifled, uncomfortable feeling all the time, and I frequently had bad dizzy spells. I could never sleep well at night and become so weak that other troubles set in and it looked like my health would break down completely. I gave up business and for four years did nothing but take medicines and treatments, in an effort to regain my strength. Nothing did me any good, although I spent hundreds of dollars, and at last I made up my mind to try Tanlac."

"Well, sir, I began to improve right away and four bottles of the medicine relieved me of every one of my troubles, and I went back to work feeling fit and fine in every way. Tanlac simply put me right back on my feet in such great shape it is a genuine pleasure to give it my strongest endorsement."

Tanlac is sold in Ogden by A. R. McIntyre Drug Co. Two busy stores.—Advertisement.

At Your Service

It's a big job to render telephone service to this great Rocky Mountain region. It's a big territory, embracing as it does, over one-fifth the land area of the United States.

It requires more plant, more miles of wire per unit of population than is required in any other portion of the United States. The reason lies in the fact that while our territory embraces 22 per cent of the land area of the country, it contains only 3 per cent of the population.

There is enough telephone wire in service in this area to circle the globe thirty times—over 746,000 miles.

Attached to this network of wires there are 300,000 telephones serving the patrons of our System.

About all the subscriber ever observes of this great System is the telephone on his desk, and that looks so simple, yet it contains 205 separate parts.

Nearly 50 million dollars are invested in the System—in buildings, switchboards, cable, conduit, poles, wire, tools, etc.

Seven thousand faithful men and women are employed to operate and maintain the System at a cost of over $ million dollars a year for salaries and wages.

It's a great, comprehensive system of communication at the service of the people of the Rocky Mountain West.
